

Surbiton Aims and Objectives

Every child will make progress and become curious and purposeful learners

To provide a rich and stimulating environment where all children and families feel included, secure and valued

Recognise that play is the most powerful medium for learning in the early years and to provide rich and stimulating first hand experiences

To celebrate and build on what children already know and can do

To encourage a positive attitude and disposition to learn

Establish trusting relationships to enable effective partnerships between staff, parents and carers to develop the child's full potential

Provide an effective early years curriculum that meets the needs of all children and encourage children to become independent learners

To ensure that all practitioners are well qualified and have access to continued professional development in order that through their knowledge of how children develop and learn they can observe and respond appropriately to children

To support families to access a range of relevant information and services provided through the multi-disciplinary team based in the centre
