

Challenge – Tray balancing

Find a tray and 5 objects. Have a start point and an end point and see if you can walk along without anything falling off! You could race your family members, or even create an obstacle course!

This helps the children to practice using a tray, as many children will for lunch in Reception.

