

Can you make some paper chains?

What you will need...

- Recycled paper, magazines
- Glue or sticky tape
- Scissors

Method

Step 1

Cut your chosen paper into strips – you can keep cutting as you go if you need more. You don't need to be precise with these, but you don't want them to be too thin or short.

Step 2

Take one strip of paper and curl around so the two length ends meet. Glue one end to the other and hold for several seconds until fairly dry. You could use sticky tape to connect the ends if you prefer.

Step 3

Feed your next strip through the middle of your first chain link. Curl the ends of the second strip together until they meet and then glue as before.

Step 4. Repeat until you've reached the length of chain that you want. Then all you need to do is find somewhere to hang your finished paper chain!

Can you have afternoon tea?

You may like to make some scones.

Presenters
Scones

You will need

- 225g self raising flour
- 55g butter
- 25g caster sugar
- 25g sultanas if you like them
- 150ml milk
- pinch of salt
- drop of milk to glaze

 Remember to ask a grown-up for help

- 1

Ask a grown-up to pre-heat an oven to 220°C / gas mark 7.
- 2

Mix together the flour and salt and rub in the butter.
- 3

Stir in the sugar and then the milk to make a soft dough.
- 4

Turn onto a floured work surface and knead very lightly. Pat out to a round roughly 2cm
- 5

Use a small cutter to stamp out rounds and place on a baking sheet. Lightly knead together the rest of the dough and stamp out more scones to use it all up.
- 6

Brush the tops of the scones with a little milk. Bake for 12-15 minutes until well risen and golden.
