

Five Little Pumpkins

Five little pumpkins sitting on a gate.
The first one said, 'Oo, it's getting late.'

The second one said, 'There are spiders everywhere.'

The third one said, 'Well we don't care.'

The fourth one said, 'Let's run, run, run.'

The fifth one said, 'Let's have some fun.'

But ooh went the wind, and out went the light,

And five little pumpkins tumbled out of sight.
